SUMMER MOVIES IN THE PARK

ASHEBORO, NC – The City of Asheboro Cultural & Recreation Services Division will offer FREE movies in Bicentennial Park for the first time starting next Saturday. On Saturday, July 25th the romantic comedy, “Blended,” rated PG-13, starring Adam Sandler and Drew Barrymore will be shown. This FREE movie will begin at approximately 8:15 p.m.

A screen will be placed on the Bicentennial Park stage and attendees are encouraged to bring blankets and lawn chairs as designated seating will be on the grass in front of the stage. Games and music will take place from 7:30 - 8:15 p.m. Dan with On Target DJ, will be the emcee for the evening. Concessions will also be available.

A second movie at Bicentennial Park will be shown on Friday, August 21st at 8 p.m. Jurassic Park will be shown with more pre-show activities including a DJ, games and a visit from “Dakota,” a lifelike “Deinonychus” and his friends, “Baby T” and the Triceratops triplets.

So, bring your blankets or your chairs and join us this summer for an evening of movies and more in Bicentennial Park.
