Summer Swimming Lessons

Asheboro - The Asheboro Cultural & Recreation Services department will offer swimming lessons during the 2015 summer pool season. All lessons will be taught by American Red Cross-certified water safety instructors using the “Learn to Swim,” technique. Both private and group lessons will be available to anyone over the age of 6 months old.

Please register by visiting the Asheboro Cultural & Recreation department, located at 241 Sunset Avenue in downtown Asheboro. The cost of group lessons is $25 for city residents with a current rec card and $30 for those who live outside city limits. Private lessons are $50 for city residents with a current rec card and $60 for non-residents.

Lessons will be held in three, two-week sessions, beginning Monday, June 15th. Upon registration, participants will be informed which time slot they are to attend based on age group. Groups include: Parent and Child Aquatics for six month to three-year-olds; Preschool Aquatics for four and five-year-olds; and Learn-to-Swim for those six years or older.

For more information, please contact City of Asheboro Cultural & Recreation aquatics program coordinator, Latoya Price, at (336) 626-1240 ext. 5 or via e-mail at lprice@ci.asheboro.nc.us.
