“A Taste of Thanksgiving” Mother/Son Cooking Class

ASHEBORO – In response to the successful Father / Daughter Valentine Dinner and Dance, The City of Asheboro Cultural and Recreation Services Division in association with Golden Corral will be offering for the first time an event geared toward mothers and their sons. “A Taste of Thanksgiving”, a mother and son cooking class, will take place on Monday, November 23rd from 6-8 p.m. at the Randolph County Senior Adults Center Demonstration Kitchen. The RCSA Center is located at 347 W. Salisbury Street.

“A Taste of Thanksgiving” is a family oriented event that provides mothers and their son’s ages 6-18 the opportunity to have fun and spend some quality one on one time together. This event includes one turkey per family group, simple hands-on turkey preparation techniques, making your own banana pudding using Golden Corral’s secret ingredients and an article of chef’s attire for each participant.

Registration is required in advance and in person at the Asheboro Cultural & Recreation Services office located at 241 Sunset Avenue. The cost to attend this event is $20 per pair and $5 for each additional son. Space is limited to the first 30 people, so sign up fast! The deadline to register is while space is available or Wednesday, November 18th whichever happens first.

For questions or additional information please contact Asheboro Cultural & Recreation Services at (336) 626-1240.
