“2017 SUMMER MOVIES IN THE PARK”

June 17th: Pete’s Dragon

Looking for a fun-filled activity or an event to go to on a summer evening? Well look no more! The City of Asheboro Cultural and Recreation Services Department is presenting another summer of movies in Bicentennial Park. This Saturday, June 17th, the Disney fantasy/adventure “Pete’s Dragon” (PG) will be featured. The movie, which is FREE, will begin at approximately 8:45 p.m.

A giant inflatable screen will be placed on the main stage, with seating on the grass out front. Bring your blankets or chairs and enjoy a night in the park with the entire family. Games and pre-show music will take place before the film begins provided by On Target DJ. Concessions will also be available for a nominal fee.

Other movies in this year’s series will be Saturday, July 15th, Saturday, August 12th and Saturday, September 9th beginning at dusk.
