Registration Time for Randolph County Senior Games

It's time to register for the annual Randolph County Senior Games and SilverArts. With sports events ranging from horseshoes to a 5K run and art competitions including short stories, dancing and crocheting, the Randolph County Senior Games truly offers "Something for the Artist and Athlete in Everyone." Adults age 50 and over are invited to participate, although those ages 50-54 are not eligible to go to State Finals.

The 2011 Senior Games Overall Winners were Lloyd Hamlet and Thresiamma Lawrence. They both participated in bocce, horseshoes, track and field events, shuffleboard, miniature golf and table tennis. The Kiwanis Club was the Civic Club Challenge winner.

The City of Asheboro's Cultural and Recreation Services Department manages the Senior Games program. Registration forms can be found at www.asheboronc.gov or at their office at the corner of Church Street and Sunset Avenue in Asheboro. The early bird registration deadline is March 23. The final registration deadline is March 30. The games will run from April 14-May 10. The SilverArts Showcase will be April 23-24.

Randolph County Senior Games is sanctioned by North Carolina Senior Games, Inc., which is sponsored statewide by the NC Division of Aging and Adult Services. For additional information or to receive an entry form please call Asheboro Cultural & Recreation Services at 626-1240.
