Friday Night Bluegrass presents
“Zephyr Lightning Bolts”

ASHEBORO – The City of Asheboro in association with Friday Night Bluegrass announce the first time visit of the Zephyr Lightning Bolts to the historic Sunset Theatre this Friday, May 20th beginning at 7:00pm. The Sunset Theatre is located at 234 Sunset Avenue in downtown Asheboro.

Friday Night Bluegrass is a monthly program of the Sunset Theatre that presents local as well as regional bluegrass talent on the third Friday of every month. This month’s concert will feature the Zephyr Lightning Bolts, an old time traditional music group that have been together for the last eighteen years. Hailing from State Road, NC the group has played throughout Northwestern North Carolina and Southwestern Virginia and has earned multiple awards and recognitions over the years. Group members consist of Steve Bowen on bass, Diane Bowen on clawhammer banjo, Jacob Bowen on fiddle and Chester McMillian on guitar.

Tickets for this performance are $5.00 in advance or $8.00 at the door. Advance tickets are available at the Asheboro Cultural & Recreation Services office located across the street from the Theatre at 241 Sunset Avenue. For more information please call the Cultural & Recreation Services office at (336) 626-1240.
