

The David and Pauline Jarrell Center City Garden

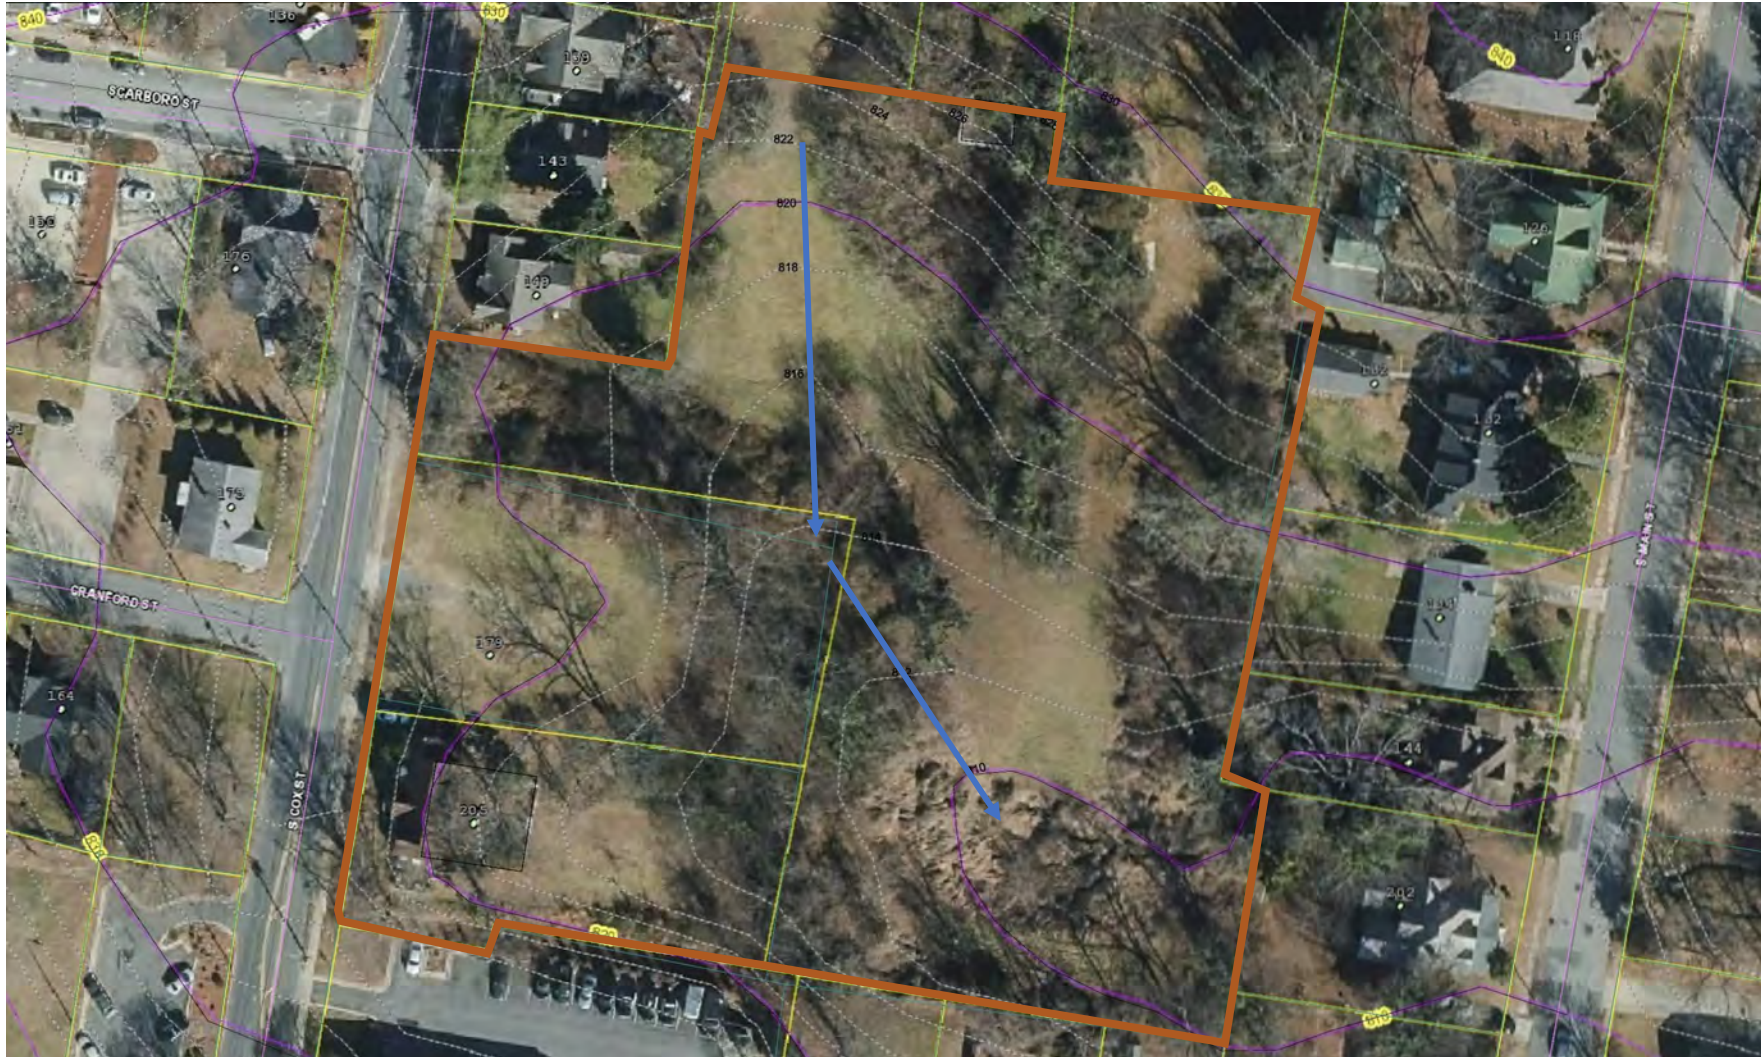

Stakeholder Meeting

August 10, 2021

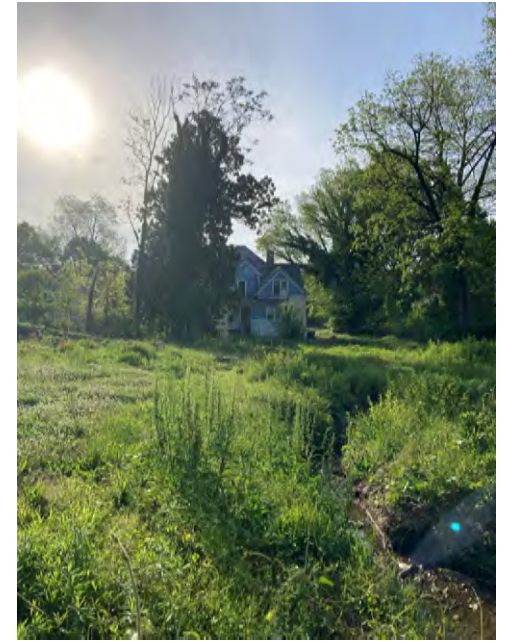

Site Vicinity / Location

Existing Site

Existing Site Photos

Existing Site Photos

Scope/Program for Site

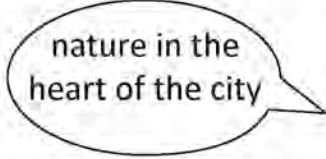

- Bird and wildlife attracting plants
- Fragrant plants
- Gardens: apiary, bog, butterfly, rose, shade
- ADA path system
- Places to sit
- Water features
- Gazebo or pavilion – possible small wedding venue
- Amenities: restrooms, hydration stations, emergency call box
- Parking for approx. 24-30
- Power for events and possible holiday light show
- Lighting for safety, path, parking
- Water for drinking and irrigation
- Use existing home onsite for visitor center
- Be mindful of the wetlands on site.

Schedule/Timeline

[illegible]

Guiding Philosophy & User Experience

 attraction for locals	 attract new residents	 nature in the heart of the city
 outdoor classroom	 provide open space	 attraction for tourists
 community asset	 celebrate the site's history	 event venue

Initial Diagrams

Preliminary Concept - 1

South Cox Street
Asheboro, NC
May 14, 2021

CONCEPT PLAN - OPTION 1
The David & Pauline Jarrell Center City Garden

PROSPECT LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE PLLC

Preliminary Concept - 2

Final Concept

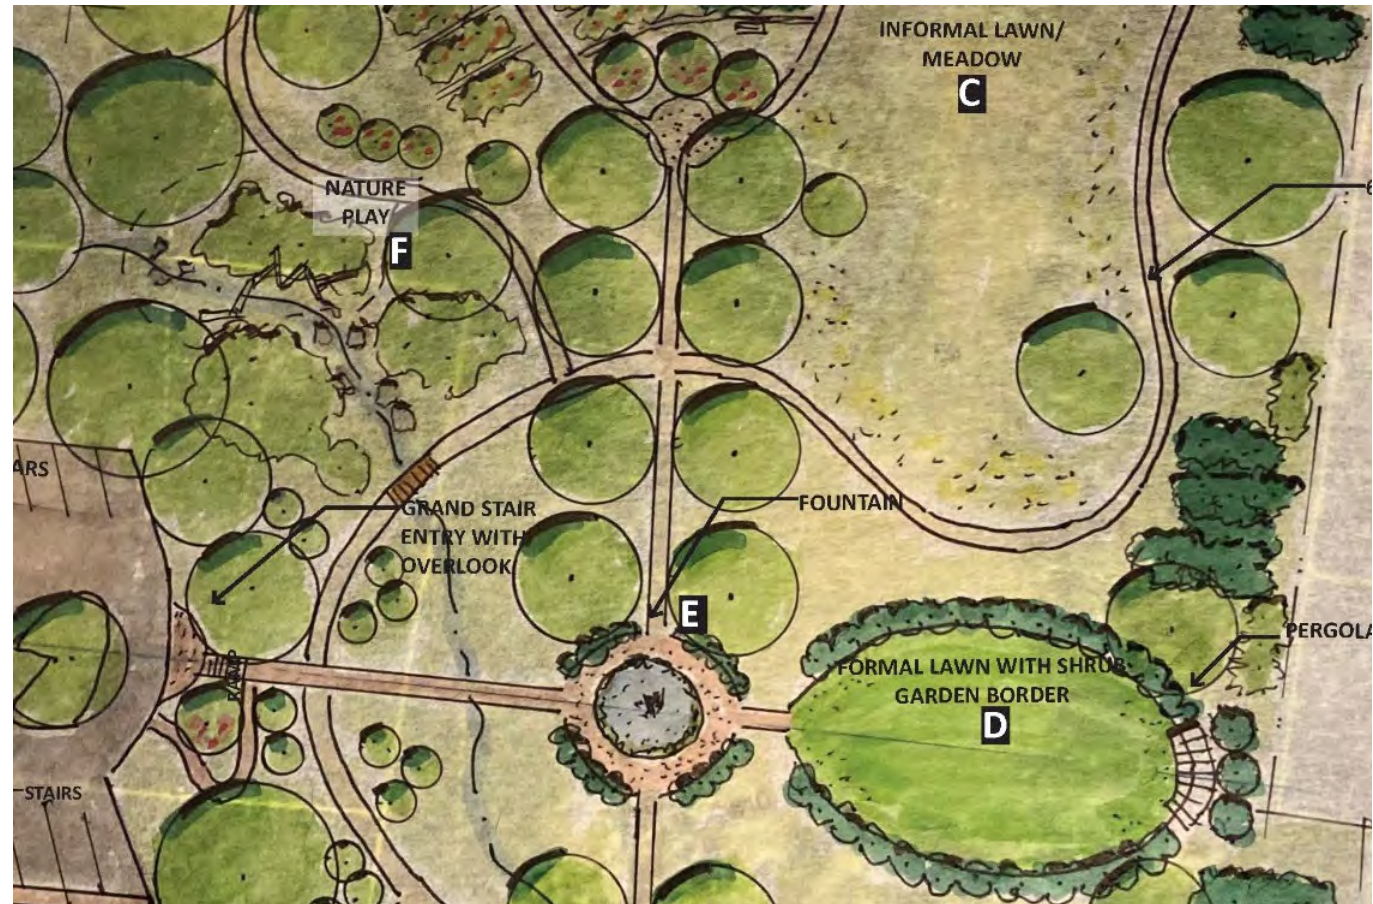

Arrival

Wetlands & Boardwalk

Formal Lawn, Walkway & Fountain

Flowering Shrub Garden & Meadow

Woodland Walk & Nature Play

Overall Concept

Thank you for your input!