MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF

I am pleased to publish the 2025 Annual Report for the Asheboro Police Department. Before highlighting some of the accomplishments detailed in the report, I want to recognize the employees of the department. Why is the Asheboro Police Department successful? The department is successful because of the people that make up the Asheboro Police Department. Our employees persevere each day to achieve the department's motto of Honor, Integrity, and Service and to make Asheboro a safer community. They have a common purpose; they are determined, supportive, and they care. They care for each other, they care about the community they serve, they care about the department's reputation, and they care about doing the right thing. The employees of the Asheboro Police Department are solely responsible for the achievements detailed in the department's annual report.

The 2025 Annual Report from the Asheboro Police Department is a statistical report that contains data the department uses to analyze trends, assess our effectiveness, and determine the future direction of the department.

In 2025, the Asheboro Police Department continued its efforts to reduce violent crimes within the city limits of Asheboro. This team approach, which includes officers, professional staff, partnerships, and community engagement, is directly responsible for a 44.7% decrease in Part 1 Offenses (Criminal Homicide, Forcible Rape, Robbery, Aggravated Assault, Burglary, Larceny/Theft, Motor Vehicle Theft, and Arson) since 2022.

The report also shows how the department is committed to training. In 2025, officers of the department completed 15,998 hours of training. Of those hours, 1,082 hours were committed to leadership/management training for departmental supervisors. Leading our young department is a key priority. Training is crucial in providing exemplary service to our community and ensuring our officers are adhering to policies, statutes, and the rule of law.

Moreover, I would be remiss if recognition was not given to the city manager's office, along with the Mayor and the City Council for their continued support. Their commitment is an integral aspect in ensuring a safe and vibrant community. Even with the abundant support the police department receives, the department still has numerous needs. There is an overwhelming need for an updated modern police facility that can accommodate all departmental personnel and competitive salaries for its officers.

In conclusion, the Asheboro Police Department's strengths come from the employees who have chosen a profession where service is the main ingredient. The department is steadfast in achieving its motto of Honor, Integrity, and Service. With collaboration between citizens, community groups, and local businesses, the department will persevere in making Asheboro a safer community. With continued support from our city leadership and city council, we are confident that "Asheboro is Exactly Where You Want to Be!"

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS

The Criminal Investigations Division (CID) is commanded by a Lieutenant who oversees a Detective Sergeant and nine detectives, three of which are specialized Crime Scene Investigators (CSI), an administrative assistant, and one part-time cold case detective. These detectives are called to respond to the scene whenever an investigation reaches beyond the time or resource constraints of patrol officers.

Detectives are required to investigate crimes against persons (crime including homicides, rapes, assault, etc.) and crimes against property (burglaries, larcenies, forgeries, auto thefts, etc.). This division cooperates with other city, state and federal agencies in investigating incidents and gathering of criminal intelligence data. Crime Scene Investigators are responsible for assisting victims by gathering, processing, protecting the integrity of a scene and presenting evidence.
